

DEFERRED DISPOSTION (ARTICLE 45.051 CCP)
(OPTION 2 on REPLY/PLEA FORM)

YOU MUST CONTACT THE COURT FOR THIS OPTION

Call 979-732-8725 (M-F, 8:30 am-4:30 pm)

If you are eligible for deferred disposition and the Court grants it, you will be placed on unsupervised probation for a period not to exceed 180 days and if at the end of that period you have complied with the terms of your probation, you will be charged a special expense fee and your case will be dismissed.

If you hold a Commercial Driver's License (CDL), you are not eligible for deferred disposition.

If you are younger than 25 years of age, you must complete a driver safety course as a term of your probation.
