

How to file an Eviction Suit
JUSTICE OF THE PEACE PCT4
COLORADO COUNTY

1. Eviction suits cannot be filed in Justice Court unless there is a landlord-tenant relationship, either expressed or implied.
2. The law requires that prior to filing the case; the landlord must give the tenant a written demand to vacate the premises. This notice must be hand delivered to someone at the premises over 16 years of age, or affixed to the inside or outside of the main entry door, or mailed by U.S. certified mail or regular mail. (If the tenant contests the eviction in Court the burden is on the landlord to prove that the proper notice to vacate was given.)
3. If the reason for the eviction is because the tenant did not pay rent or violated the lease in some other way justifying eviction, the law requires the notice state the reason and gives the tenant at least 3 days to vacate before the eviction can be filed. If there is a written lease contract that provides for a different notice time, then the lease must be followed. The eviction case cannot be filed until the notice time has expired.
4. If there is a written lease contract signed by 2 or more tenants, all of the tenants should be named and served with a citation, however, the naming and serving of one tenant and the statement of “and/or all other occupants” may be sufficient.
5. An Eviction Petition will be needed. (Form located under “Petition” tab)
6. Once the petition is filed and filing fee accepted, the clerk of the Court will issue a citation; the judge will set a court date (10-21 days from the filed date) and give the citation and copy of the petition to the Constable for service.
7. When the Constable receives the citation from the clerk, he will attempt to serve the Defendant. After the Constable serves the Defendant the clerk of the court will notify the Plaintiff of a Court date.
8. On the Court date, it will be the Plaintiff’s responsibility to prove their case against the Defendant.
 - If the Defendant does not show for Court, a Default Judgment will be issued against them. The Defendant has 5 days to move or file an Appeal bond.
 - If the Defendant has not moved or filed an Appeal bond after the expiration of 5 days from the date of judgment, the Plaintiff can ask for a Writ of Possession.
9. When a Writ of Possession is issued, the Constable will instruct the tenant to remove or to allow the landlord, the landlord’s representatives, or other persons acting under the officer’s supervision, to remove all personal property from the rental unit other than personal property claimed to be owned by the landlord.
